Bullhead City Welcomes COMMUNITY VIDEO PROGRAM Produced By Proud Partner, CGI Communications, Inc.

February 22, 2017 - CGI Communications, Inc. is proud to announce the start of a new Community Video Program in the Bullhead City area! The Community Video Program will be an innovation to the way that Bullhead City welcomes families, residents and business owners. Bullhead City will feature these videos directly on their website (www.bullheadcity.com).

Throughout a series of videos, CGI will highlight everything that makes Bullhead City a wonderful place to live, work, and play. While the community videos are being produced, members of the CGI staff will reach out to business owners to encourage their own sponsorship through videos connected to the City's program. Bullhead City's Video Tour will be the go-to place for those looking to move to the community.

It is the goal of CGI Communications, Inc. to provide Bullhead City with the latest in digital marketing technology, in order to help the community continue to grow and thrive.
